Meet Your Coach

Let me tell you a secret. You deserve the life you crave. You owe it to yourself to do the work!

For years, I was a master of putting on a brave face and looking like I was having the time of my life. I was in movies and magazines—I was even on the cover of Playboy three times! Oprah booked me for her show...but it was all a lie. I was miserable. I was using attention, relationships, and addiction to cover the wounds of my past. The harder and faster I ran from that pain—the more I ignored it, the better I felt. Or so I thought.

I ended up broke and divorced with three young children.

At one point, I was living with my mom in Florida while my kids were calling me, begging me to have them live with me. But I didn't have a way to help them—until I put in the work. My life began to change in 2017 when I started to put in the work. I declared how my life was going to be. I took control—I faced my demons, and I became a better person. I started to love myself and created deeper relationships than I'd ever felt in my entire life!
